LISA L. SKAPURA EARNS CERTIFIED GOVERNMENT AUDITING PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATION

Altamonte Springs, FL – Lisa L. Skapura was named today as a Certified Government Auditing Professional® (CGAP®) by The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA). The CGAP designation is awarded to individuals who have met the requirements of The IIA's CGAP program, including a challenging examination, high standards of character, and proof of education and government auditing experience.

Offered throughout the world, the CGAP exam is a specialty exam designed specifically for and by audit practitioners in various levels of government. The CGAP exam explores comprehension of government auditing practice, methodologies, and environment. Related standards, including IIA standards and government auditing standards, are tested along with control/risk models.

Certified Government Auditing Professionals are members of a growing professional group who have distinguished themselves through specialized certification and are ready to handle the unique challenges of auditing in the public sector.

Established in 1941, The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA) is an international professional association of more than 130,000 members with global headquarters in Altamonte Springs, Fla., United States. Throughout the world, The IIA is recognized as the internal audit profession's leader in certification, education, research, and technological guidance.
