

ANGELA CRUM

WHEREAS, the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards, founded in 1923 are the nation's largest, longest –running, most prestigious recognition program for creative teenagers from seventh through 12th grades. Each year, students submit more than 150,000 works of art and writing to be evaluated by creative professionals, educators and scholars; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Angela Crum, a senior at Revere High School in Richfield, received a silver medal in the National Scholastic Art & Writing Awards for "Tres Guitars," an illustration she created using colored pencils on black parchment; and

WHEREAS, several of Angela's pieces have won regional Scholastic Art Awards this year and her work is considered to be in the top one percent of high school artists' work nationally; and

WHEREAS, Angela joins an elite group of artists in receiving her medal including: Richard Avedon, Mel Bochner, Truman Capote, John Lithgow, Joyce Carol Oates, Zac Posen, Sylvia Plath, Robert Redford and Andy Warhol who also won the award as teenagers; and

WHEREAS, Angela recently traveled to New York City for the National Art Celebration and Awards Ceremony at Carnegie Hall and participated in museum tours and studio workshops with professional artists. In addition to her artistic talents, Angela also played softball at Revere, and plans to attend Kent State University in the fall to study art and architecture.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known by all and declared by the Council of the County of Summit, State of Ohio that:

This Council commends Ms. Angela Crum on her exemplary talent and achievement. We congratulate her on receiving the National Scholastic Art Award and wish her the best in her future endeavors. We urge all citizens to join in honoring this fine, upstanding young woman on this 19th day of July in the year 2010.
