

JUDGE ELINORE MARSH STORMER

WHEREAS, Summit County Common Pleas Court Judge Elinore Marsh Stormer was recently appointed to state and national judicial positions for her work in establishing the county's first court re-entry program. The Summit County re-entry court program works with inmates, primarily non-violent drug offenders, who get released from prison with less than a year remaining on their sentences; and

WHEREAS, as an Akron Municipal Court Judge, Judge Stormer started the first Municipal Drug Court and the first Mental Health Specialty Court in Ohio and has been a leader in bringing the concept of "therapeutic jurisprudence" to Ohio. Following her election to the Summit County Court of Common Pleas, in November 2004, she continued her commitment to intelligent sentencing and a "smart on crime" approach as she began Summit County's first Reentry Court to assist felons returning from prison to become law-abiding citizens in September 2006; and

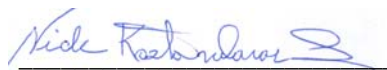

WHEREAS, offenders in the program are closely monitored to ensure they address substance abuse and mental health issues, housing, employment, education and family relationships. Judge Stormer was one of the first judges in the state to implement a re-entry program and one of only 11 currently operating one statewide; and

WHEREAS, Judge Stormer was named as a trustee to the Ohio Common Pleas Court Judges Association and as a representative on the American Bar Association Specialized Docket Committee.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known by all and declared by the Council of the County of Summit, State of Ohio that: This Council recognizes the outstanding work of Judge Elinore Marsh Stormer and her commitment to justice in this community. We urge all citizens to join in honoring her on this 31st day of January in the year 2011.
