

COUNTY OF SUMMIT TRAIN THE TRAINER ACADEMY

WHEREAS, on September 23, 2010, the County of Summit Human Resources Department, headed by Mr. Leonard Foster initiated the third class of its "Train-the-Trainer" Academy to expand human resources training and knowledge to various departments by providing updated training material to employees throughout the county; and

WHEREAS, over a 10-week period, ten training participants from the County of Summit, City of Akron and Children's Hospital were required to complete a total of 40 hours in classroom instruction and training skills practice to learn facilitation skills, concepts and principles through a number of dynamic lectures, interactive class discussions and practical hands on- activity- based exercises; and

WHEREAS, each participant was required to pass a written examination and lead a two-hour work related power point presentation using acquired facilitation skills while applying various training aids; and

WHEREAS, as a result of this program, the graduates are now trained facilitators who understand and apply the components of the facilitation process, understand and lead the parts of the facilitation cycle and understand and manage group dynamics; and

WHEREAS, these facilitators can select and apply the right facilitation methods for any type of meeting they lead or attend, work through group conflicts and misunderstandings and solicit group cooperation for maximum commitment.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it known by all and declared by the Council of the County of Summit, State of Ohio that this Council recognizes the County of Summit Human Resources "Train-the-Trainer" Academy; the instructor, Mr. Robert L. Hunt, Sr., the third class of graduates who've completed their instruction and the contributions they will make to provide more effective and efficient services to the employees of Summit County and its citizens on this 3rd day of February in the year 2011.
