

News Release

Russell M. Pry – Summit County Executive

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: September 25, 2007

Contact: Heidi Day Hall
Community Relations Specialist
330-643-7893
hday@summitoh.net

Friends of Russ Pry Raise Money to Benefit The United Way of Summit County

On Thursday, September 20, 2007, Summit County Executive Russell M. Pry hosted a Change for Change after work, networking gathering at Rockne's Pub, located on 7 Merriman Road in Akron, to benefit the United Way of Summit County.

Change for Change is a monthly networking program that is held on the third Thursday of every month. All of the tips generated at the gathering, by the Rockne's Pub staff, are donated to a local cause.

After the event, Summit County Executive Russell M. Pry, along with the Rockne's Pub staff, presented the United Way of Summit County with over $700 in tips and donations.

"The United Way of Summit County is a great organization," said Summit County Executive Russell M. Pry. "I am sure it will make great use of this donation."

The October 2007 Change for Change event will benefit the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation. The public is invited. Future events and participating charities will be announced.

- END -