

Commercial

When is a permit required? A permit is required when structural repairs, building alterations, means of egress or a change of use occurs within a commercial structure or tenant space.

NOTE: Contact the local zoning department for specific requirements on all projects.