

Mark Beckwith

Victim Services Coordinator

Mark Beckwith began his employment with the Summit County Prosecutor's Office in February 2004. Mark obtained his Bachelors and Masters degrees in Criminal Justice from Kent State University. He worked as a probation officer with Summit County for ten years and then was chief probation officer for three years at Summit County Juvenile Court.

Mark teaches at Kent State University in Justice Studies as an adjunct professor. He is a Licensed Social Worker and Certified Chemical Dependency Counselor. Mark is our only part-time victim advocate at the juvenile level.