

ROBERT C. CAPES

Assistant Prosecutor, Juvenile Division

Robert C. Capes, Lt. Colonel, USAF (ret), Esq. From Cuyahoga Falls, attended Air Force pilot training and flew fighters, the F4, AT-38, and F-15 Eagle in the U.S. and Europe for twenty years. During that career he studied German language in Monterey California, and served as a NATO exchange officer. Served as F-15 commander of 2d Fighter Squadron Tyndall AFB. Retired as lieutenant colonel with 3,200 fighter/instructor hours. Taught two years as adjunct professor at Gulf Coast Community College/Florida State University system, on American government and civics, and taught for McDonnell Douglas Aircraft Corporation. Bachelor of Arts Political Science, University of Akron, Master of Arts in International Government, New Mexico State University, Juris Doctor, University of Akron School of Law. Eleven years experience in Akron municipal and Summit County Prosecutors offices. Taught GREAT anti-gang program in Akron public schools. Most recently presented GREAT to National Conference on Juvenile Justice in St. Louis Missouri in March 2008. In January 2009 Bob was promoted to supervise the juvenile division.