

Chris Mastran

Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Supervisor of Dependency Neglect Division

Chris Mastran graduated from The University of Akron School of Law in 1996. After working for two years in the area of commercial litigation, foreclosures and construction law, she worked as an associate for an Akron Law Firm, providing research and writing to support the trial team of civil litigation attorneys. In 2001, she was hired by the Stark County Department of Job and Family Services. In that capacity, she gained experience in litigating and negotiating child custody issues in dependency, neglect and abuse cases.

In 2002, she came to work for the Summit County Prosecutor's Office in the Dependency/Neglect division, representing Summit County Children Services Board. In 2004 she became the Supervising Attorney for the staff of Assistant Prosecutors in the Dependency/Neglect Division. In 2007 she became a class participant in the Child and Family Leadership Exchange. She has attended numerous seminars and programs on the topics of child protection and child abuse and in 2007 received an award to recognize her dedication and service from the SCCS Pinwheels for Prevention campaign.
