

Kimberly Subotin

Victim Advocate

Kimberly Subotin joined the Victim Services Division in 2007. She is a graduate of the University of Akron with an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice with an emphasis in Social Services. She started in this field as a volunteer for Juvenile Court as a CASA/Guardian Ad Litem before taking a position as a Court Advocate for the Medina County Battered Women's Shelter. From there, she became a SAFE Advocate in the Summit County Court.

Kim brings a great deal of passion and experience to the Prosecutor's Office, working on cases involving violence against women.
