

Maureen Vos

Victim Advocate

Maureen Vos started with the Prosecutor's Office in May of 2006. Previously, she worked for Summit and Medina County's Battered Women's Shelter for ten years as a crisis intervention specialist and court advocate with domestic violence. She is also trained to be a responder on the rape crisis hotline. Additionally, she has worked at all levels of the court system including the Akron, Barberton, and Cuyahoga Falls Municipal Courts, as well as Common Pleas and Domestic Relations Court.

Maureen is a Victim Advocate at the Common Pleas level. In 2010, she received her B.A. in Business Management from Walsh University.
