Child Support Enforcement Agency setting up information booths For Child Support Awareness Month

(Akron, August 19, 2009) ... The Child Support Enforcement Agency (CSEA), a division of Summit County Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh's Office, is setting up information booths at community locations for individuals to get help with their child support. The locations are:

Akron Public Library, Downtown Branch
August 24, AND August 31, 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.

Akron Metro RTA, Transit Center Community Room
Wednesday, August 19 AND August 26, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Prosecutor Sherri Bevan Walsh said, "We hope that people will take advantage of this opportunity to ask questions or resolve problems with their child support. The information booths are there to facilitate all CSEA inquiries, including establishment of support, modification requests, driver's license suspension and other questions."

Summit County Council passed a resolution to declare August as Child Support Awareness Month in Summit County. Statewide, child support agencies are holding different activities to bring awareness to child support.
