

ROLE PLAY EXAMPLES

Ask your children what they would do with each example. Insert names of neighbors, family friends and relatives with some of the below examples:

1. A nice man in a suit stops his car and asks you for directions?
(Remind kids that adults do not ask kids for directions.)
2. A man or woman comes up to you and says, "Have you seen my puppy? Will you help me find my puppy? Can you come over to my car so I can show you a picture of my puppy?"
3. Someone tells you your mom/dad has been in an accident and they need to take you to the hospital.
4. Someone you don't know calls you by name and tells you your mom/dad asked them to pick you up.
5. Someone tells you he is a police officer and shows you a badge. He asks you to help him find a friend of yours who is missing.
6. Your friend tells you someone is sexually touching her and makes you promise to keep it a secret.
7. Someone touches you and tells you to keep it a secret or you will get in trouble. They say that no one will believe you since you are just a kid.
8. Someone touches you and tells you that if you tell, they will hurt your mommy/daddy/dog.
9. Someone offers you $50 to get in their car.

Also use the above examples with names of acquaintances.
