ALERT!

BE CAREFUL WHEN SELLING ITEMS ON CRAIG'S LIST!

Craig's List has become a huge online flea market. But with the convenience of buying and selling online, comes the risk of dealing with a scammer. My office is currently handling a case where allegedly a computer was sold for $200 online through Craig's List. The seller agreed to meet at McDonald's to deliver the computer, but instead robbed the buyer of the $200 and kept the computer.

Watch out for scam artists. Never go to pick up an item alone and be sure to have the item in your possession before you hand over the money.

Visit our website for a list of past alerts.
